LINK BEATEN SAYS HOLSTEIN

Big Island Veteran Prophesies
Hawaii Will Snow Democrat Under

H. L. Holstein, the Republican war horse of Hawaii, left today for the Big Island after a flying trip to Honolulu. He arrived yesterday, transacted some business, got a line on the political situation and goes back today to begin a hard campaign for reelection to the House, and for the Republican ticket.

According to Mr. Holstein, the political situation at Hilo is badly mixed and there may be some strong opposition to the Republican ticket but West Hawaii, he thinks, is O. K. He says that the island of Hawaii will snow under Link McCandless, the Democratic candidate for delegate.

"McCandless will run far behind Prince Kuhio on Hawaii," prophesied Holstein this morning. "McCandless has much more here than on Hawaii, and it doesn't look to me as if he need be feared in Honolulu."

Holstein will begin his Kau campaign on Sunday and will be pretty busy from now until November 5.

REGISTRATION STILL SLOW

The County clerk reports that the registration is fast climbing toward the seven-thousand mark but is still shy some eleven hundred who are entitled to vote according to the registration of two years ago. About 125 voters can be placed on the register a day, and at that rate there must be some tall old hustling on the part of both clerk and voters to make the register complete by the last stroke of 12 o'clock Tuesday night, Oct. 15.

The Hawaiian vote is falling short this year. On Saturday night there were in the neighborhood of five hundred short; but it is expected that there will be many apply during the Inter half of this week.

JOE COHEN TAKES OATH AS UNIONIST

In the presence of the Hui Unionists, assembled last night in their headquarters on Queen street, Joel C. Cohen, W. C. Achi and James Young, well known politicians, were sworn in to support the constitution and by laws of the association.

The oath was administered by President Kane in Hawaiian, and, it is doubtful if Cohen, who could not understand the language is legitimately bound by the action of the hui.

Achi remained silently with his right hand, slightly emerging over his head.

POLITICAL NEWS AND NOTES

Prince Kuhio, Delegate to Congress, sailed for Kauai yesterday afternoon. It is expected that he will return next Saturday morning, if he could find a steamer to return on.

Eben P. Low, Republican Supervisor, last night stated that he signed nomination papers of Mayor Fern. He, however, was diplomatic in reply, when asked whether he would vote for "Old Joe."

"Does the fact that you signed Fern's nomination paper mean that you would vote for him on election day?" he was asked.

"I don't know about that," he calmly replied.

President Kane of the Hui Unionia apparently wanted to "steamroller" everything done in the convention of the Hui Unionia yesterday; but, his movements were blocked from all directions.

J. H. Boyd and Capt. Robert Parker Waipia, who were said by the morning paper to have pledged themselves to support Hui Unionia members who are political candidates, deny that they ever had any such intention.

"We took part in the meeting yesterday, but we consistently fought to turn down the plan to endorse political candidates," says Boyd, "Kane, Koa, Fernandez, Parker and myself were against endorsing candidates, and it is foolish to say that we were going to cut the ticket. We are supporting the straight Republican ticket."

"That's true," said Parker. "The statement that we would support unionists who are not Republicans is false."

OUTLAW DEMOCRAT BARRED FROM TICKET

While the law is not clearly definite on the point, Attorney General Alex. Lindsay has ruled that the nomination of S. K. Aoleinua, representative aspirant from Maui cannot be officially recognized and his name placed on the ballot for the coming election. Thus the question that has perplexed Territorial Secretary E. A. Mott-Smith is eliminated and that official is sustained in his belief that an order on the postoffice, placed in his hands to enable him to obtain nomination papers from the mail for candidates, is not equivalent to placing them on file in his office by the nominees themselves.

In his interpretation of the law the Attorney-General had only one previous court decision to aid him. That one was the Chandler case, in which the supreme court held that although the candidate had mailed his papers before the date of closing the lists, his name must be left out because the mail did not bring the papers to the Territorial Secretary before the lists were closed. The present case differs slightly from the former one, but the Attorney General considers the difference not sufficient to be material.

CALL FOR BIDS TO LAY PUNCHBOWL PAVEMENTS

Tenders for laying pavement and sewers in the streets of the recently opened Punchbowl district will be called for shortly after October 20, according to Superintendent Marston Campbell of the department of public works, and the owners of lots in that region are urged to make their complete payments at the earliest possible moment, as the extent of the improvements depends entirely on the moneys received from the sale of the property by the territory.

Tenders will be called for the work by sections, the right being reserved to let the contract by subdivisions or as a whole. The sewers will be laid before the macadamizing is started.

The skeleton of a Mastodon was unearthed near Malahide, Ont. The ribs are five feet long, and one tooth weighing four pounds and measuring 14 inches around was found.

UNION DECIDES NOT TO INDORSE

Minority Report Against Injecting Politics Carries in General Vote

THE TICKET THAT WAS NOT ENDORSED.

For Delegate to Congress—L. L. McCandless.
For Senators—D. Kalaoukalan, Sr. and Joel C. Cohen.
For Representatives—J. H. Boyd, G. K. Keawehaku, H. M. Kanaho, Ulysses Jones, J. K. Pa-ele, Charles Kanekoa and E. J. McCandless.
For Supervisors—D. Notley, William Ahia, E. H. F. Wolter, Robert Parker Waipia and Ma-kekau.
For Deputy Sheriff—Jack Fernandez of Ewa.

The above ticket would have been endorsed by the Hui Unionia last night had not George Kekauoha of Laie fought against the proposition of injecting politics into the labor association. As spokesman of the minority of the indorsement committee opposing the majority report presented by President Kane of the hui, Kekauoha said that it is no business of the members of the hui to permit politics in the association. He argued that if the members wanted to support those who are aspiring for political honors, it was their business, individually, to do so, but when they attempted to force politics in the hui they made a big mistake.

"Soapbox" Barron, who spoke first, said that the hui should not be dragged into politics. He wanted to leave politics out and urged those present to kill the report of the majority of the committee.

Kane, who captained J. C. Cohen's fight for indorsement, said that it is within the discretion of the members to support the brothers of the hui, who are, nevertheless, affiliated with the different political factions in Honolulu.

After a considerable exchange of heated arguments, the report of the majority of the members of the committee, headed by Kane, was defeated. It is believed that many of the unionists will support their brother aspirants for political honors, regardless of the action of the association last night.

During the afternoon session the hui decided to support the candidates who are members of the hui, but in the evening they changed their mind and overturned the entire proposition. This action on their part amazed the spectators who were present.

Had the report of the majority of the committee, to endorse all the members of the hui who are running for Senators and Representatives, been sustained, Link McCandless would have been indorsed for Delegate to Congress without any question, it is declared.

Barron, one of Link's right-hand men, opposed the endorsement of the candidates by the hui, regardless of Link's being in the field.

William Mossman Jr. ably presided at the meeting.

TARIFF LAWS

Increased cost of living than the laying of the Atlantic cable.

May Mean Nothing.

In view of the presidents seemingly contradictory statements, and their general vagueness, many shrewd politicians affect to believe they mean nothing and are thrown out for effect during the campaign. It does not seem possible the regular Republicans can regain absolute control of the senate and the Democrats are likely to remain in possession of the house.

In such an event tariff revision would prove more of a joke than it did at the last session of Congress. The Democrats and Progressives would dominate the senate, while the solid Democratic majority of the house would make no concessions beyond their own ideas of revision. In such an event any change in existing law would prove impossible. The same would prove true in case of Governor Wilson's election. The Progressives would hold the balance of power in the senate and prevent any legislation except on their own lines, which are too conservative for the Democrats.

The extreme optimism manifested by President Taft is having a beneficial influence on his followers throughout the country. They have all been encouraged by his statements that the situation grows daily better. In summing up bettered conditions Mr. Taft said:

"Five or six weeks ago it was asserted generally that the republican party would secure the vote of the solid east, including all of the New England states, with the exception of Maine and Vermont; that the democratic party would maintain its hold on the solid south, and that the third-term party would secure the solid west, leaving only the middle west as debatable ground."

"Today, with the election still one month away, the republican party finds itself with a strengthened hold on the solid east, having routed the third term party in Vermont and the democratic party in Maine. The third-term leaders recently conceded that we would pick the state of Utah out of the solid west, and, after conferring with Chairman Hilges and others recently in the west there is every reason to believe that the Republican party will carry Michigan, Washington Idaho and Wyoming."

"Moreover, if the proper kind of a campaign is waged, we will carry Oregon, Kansas and Minnesota, where the third-term strength has rapidly waned since the recent four through that section by the party's candidate, Roosevelt Hurts Himself."

It is an admitted fact that Col. Roosevelt has materially weakened his position by many intemperate utterances. In all his platform harangues he slashes right and left with a double-edged knife and cares nothing who is injured thereby. His declaration that the beneficiary of stolen goods is equally guilty with the man who purloins them created general resentment. It even irritated Lodge, Root, Borah and many who have stood faithfully by the Colonel's fortunes since his entry into public life.

In handing a card of admission to the Ananias Club to Governor Wilson, with his usual court comments, Col. Roosevelt did himself some harm and no injury to the Governor. While it might be a fact that Governor Wilson's statement regarding the former Trust situation have been incorrect, or even untrue, an announcement to that effect by the Colonel does not carry much weight.

FREAR LOOKING FOR CAMPBELL'S SUCCESSOR

Governor Frear has stated that within the next few days he will be ready to announce the successor to Marston Campbell, superintendent of public works.

When asked today by the Star-Bulletin if he could say whether the appointee would be Harry Kneegel, engineer of the Hilo Railway, the Executive declined to discuss the subject, saying he is not prepared to make an announcement of any kind on the subject, further than that an appointment probably will be made shortly.

He refused to either confirm or deny the rumor that Kneegel is slated for the job.

A number of tourists departed for the volcano in the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea, which got away for the big island at 10 o'clock this morning. The Mauna Kea also carried a large delegation of Filipinos who but recently arrived here, to take up work on Hawaii and Maui plantations.
